Husson University is committed to providing a safe environment for all members of our community. All applicants must answer the following questions. An affirmative answer does not necessarily bar admission to Husson, but does require review. If you answer yes to any of the following questions, please submit a separate sheet of paper that gives the approximate date of each incident, explains the circumstances, and reflects on what you learned from the experience.

1. Have you ever been found responsible for a disciplinary violation at any educational institution you have attended from 9th grade (or the international equivalent) forward, whether related to academic misconduct or behavioral misconduct that resulted in your probation, suspension, removal, dismissal, or expulsion from the institution? Yes No
2. Have you ever been convicted of a misdemeanor, felony, or other crime? Yes No
3. Do you have any criminal complaints pending against you at this time? Yes No

Universities are asked by the federal government, accrediting associations, and college guides, among others, to describe the racial/ethnic backgrounds of our students. To fulfill these requests, please consider responding to the following questions:

- (Optional) Please indicate if you are Hispanic or Latino: Yes No
- (Optional) Please select one or more of the following racial categories to describe yourself:
- American Indian or Alaska Native Asian Black or African American
Native Hawaiian or Other Pacific Islander White

Husson University is committed to maintaining an environment that is free from unlawful harassment and discrimination of all kinds and prohibits discrimination against or harassment of any individual or group on the basis of race, color, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity and/or expression, religion, ancestry or national origin, age, physical or mental disability, citizenship, veteran status, or any other applicable legally protected status in matters of admissions, employment, housing, or services in the educational programs or activities it operates. Consistent with this commitment, as well as federal and state laws, Husson University does not tolerate unlawful discrimination or harassment in any form. Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 protects people from sex discrimination in educational programs and activities at institutions, like Husson University, that receive federal financial assistance. Questions regarding Title IX may be referred to the university's Title IX Coordinator, David Casavant, at casavantd@husson.edu, or 207.941.7132.

The University upholds privacy in accordance with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 as amended.

While there is no cost to take ECAP courses, students will be responsible for covering the cost of books and supplies.
